

WOMAN'S LIFE CONGRATULATES PAM DICKINSON ON RETIREMENT

(Port Huron, MI) Pam Dickinson, Executive Secretary to the National President, has retired after more than 43 years with Woman's Life Insurance Society. Pam began her career with Woman's Life in 1973 in the claims department. She also served in a supportive position to the General Counsel before moving to the office of the National President.

"Pam has been an important part of our Home Office team. Her attention to detail and commitment to excellence have been invaluable to me. In addition, she has been a friend to us all with her kindness and thoughtfulness," said Chris Martin, national president. "We wish her well as she begins this exciting new chapter in life."

In 1892 Bina West, a young teacher from Capac, Michigan, made it her life's work to provide women with the opportunity to achieve financial security for themselves and their families. As a result, she founded one of the first organizations in the United States to offer life insurance to women. Today, Woman's Life remains committed to her vision, helping women prepare for a secure financial future while supporting their community outreach.

To learn more about the quality life insurance and annuity products offered by Woman's Life, or to learn about how Woman's Life supports community projects held by members to benefit charitable organizations and individuals in need, visit WomansLife.org or call 810-985-5191.