

Woman's Life Congratulates Recent Retirees

(Port Huron, MI) Shelly Miller, Member Service

Representative, has retired after more than 25 years with

Woman's Life Insurance Society. Shelly began her career with

Woman's Life in 1991 as a Production Support Clerk, quickly moving into full time status as Transcriptionist. She served in several other roles including Word Processing Specialist and Conservation Representative prior to becoming a Member Service

Representative. She also earned the professional designation of Associate Customer Service (ACS).

"Shelly has been an important part of our Member Service team for many years. We appreciate her long-time commitment to Woman's Life and our members, and we wish her well as she begins this exciting new chapter in life," said Chris Martin, national president.

Margo Harris, Payroll and Benefits Administrator, has retired after more than 45 years of service with Woman's Life Insurance Society. Margo joined Woman's Life in 1971 as a payroll clerk. During her tenure, she also served as senior payroll clerk, and payroll administrator.

"Margo has been a highly-valued member of our Home Office staff. We appreciate her many years of service and commitment to Woman's Life and wish her a long and happy retirement," said Chris Martin, national president.

In 1892 Bina West, a young teacher from Capac, Michigan, made it her life's work to provide women with the opportunity to achieve financial security for themselves and their families. As a result, she founded one of the first organizations in the United States to offer life insurance to women. Today, Woman's Life remains committed to her vision, helping women prepare for a secure financial future while supporting their community outreach.
