

Fun, Fresh, & Exciting Ideas!

The Alphabet Challenge

Throw a letter themed party. From clothing to food and props - the possibilities are endless! For example, bring things that start with the letter W! Wear a fun wig or watch, eat waffles and watermelon, dress like a witch. This can easily become a fun tradition by picking the next letter out for your next meeting. Put it to a vote and make it a challenge to see who can come up with the best item!

Color Party

This idea is just like the alphabet party, except it's based on colors instead of letters. In order to pull this party off, pick a color at random and use it as the basis for the entire soiree.

#TBT Decade Party

This has been done many times before – but that is because it's just so much fun! Pick any decade and have a party that incorporates elements of that time. For example, for the Roaring '20s, girls can dress in flapper dresses, guys in gangster or Gatsby-inspired suits.

No Technology Night

Turn all cell phones and iPads you have with you in at the door and go off the grid! Enjoy conversations, laughs, treats and each other sans electronic devices. Trust us, you won't run out of things to talk about!

Hula Party

Are you feeling like you need a tropical getaway, but can't afford one right now? How about throwing a Hula-themed party? Put out your tiki torches, hula skirts, pink flamingos and sip on some frosty drinks from coconut cups.

Rock-n-Roll Party

If you love rock-and-roll, how about throwing a party that pays homage to this awesome genre of music? Set up a playlist of your favorite rock bands, dress in rocker-inspired gear and decorate your space with posters, black lights, love beads and lava lamps. Groovy and awesome!

Diva Party

Party like kings and queens! Dress up your space with castle cutouts and maybe even run a red carpet along the floor. Use tons of candles and torches to light the space to give it that ancient feel. Dress as royalty, drink wine from goblets, and feast with friends.

Casino Night

Most adults would love a getaway to Las Vegas, but that just isn't in the cards sometimes (pun intended). Instead, why not host a meeting that lets everyone feel like winners? Decorate with dice and playing cards. Serve cocktails from plastic glasses and set out a buffet table of snacks. Ask your guests to wear their finest casino garb and then have some fun playing poker or blackjack.

Tea Party

This might sound like a party for little girls, but you can easily turn it into an adult worthy time too. Showcase your elegance, class, and finesse lady-like behavior. Break out the pearls, grandma's lace gloves, and red lipstick. Serve tea and delicate tea cakes of course!

Body Mind and Soul Party

Find your inner Zen by holding yoga poses, practicing deep breathing and making a list of positive affirmations to share with each other. Play soothing music in the background and wear your comfy yoga pants and cozy socks. Guaranteed relaxation headed your way!

Fondue Party

Use a Fondue pot to dip your favorite treats in chocolate or cheese (two of our favorite things!) in a fun and simple way. Pair marshmallows, pretzels, fruit, or cookies with chocolate for dessert-lovers. For the cheese course, serve French or sourdough bread, bite-sized cubed chicken, ham, or lightly steamed veggies. Tasty!

Dance Til You Drop Party

Not sure how to do the fun line dances at weddings and parties? No problem! Hold your very own line dancing class and teach guests how to do the Macarena, the Hustle, or the Cupid Shuffle. Learn how to move and groove together for more fun!

Birthday Party

Who doesn't LOVE to celebrate their birthday? Celebrate everyone's birthday at the same time with cake and ice cream, party hats, and games! Everyone gets to wear a birthday crown and be a Queen for the day.

Keep the laughter in your chapter!
