

WOMAN'S LIFE CONGRATULATES RECENT RETIREES

(Port Huron, MI) Polly Jamison, Director of Member Service,

has retired after 29 years with Woman's Life Insurance

Society. Since joining Woman's Life in 1986, Jamison served in the Universal Life and New Business Departments as Clerk,

Assistant Underwriter, Underwriter and New Business

Supervisor, and Senior Underwriter. Beginning in June 2015, as Director of New Business, Jamison was responsible for providing direction and leadership for the Society's underwriting, member service, and claims department personnel.

Jim Borema, Chief Actuary, has retired after 29 years of service with Woman's Life Insurance Society. During his tenure with Woman's Life, Borema was responsible for developing new insurance and annuity plans, and determining basis and formulae for premiums, nonforfeiture values, dividends and reserves, and interest rates. He also earned several professional designations including: Fellow, Life Management Institute (FLMI), Fellow, Life and Health Claims

(FLHC), Associate Customer Service (ACS), and Associate in Life and Health Claims

(ALHC).

Linda Warsinski, Information Systems Integration

Analyst, has retired after 25 years of service with Woman's Life Insurance Society. Warsinski joined Woman's Life in 1990 as a Programmer in the data processing department.

“Polly, Jim, and Linda have all been integral to the success of Woman's Life. Their experience, knowledge, and strong commitment to the Society and our members will be greatly missed. We wish them each a long and happy retirement,” said Christopher J. Martin, Woman's Life National President.

Woman's Life Insurance Society is a non-profit membership organization that helps members build financial security and gives back to local communities with financial support for members' volunteer activities. Since 1892 we have been offering quality financial products, including whole life, universal life, and term life insurance, and flexible premium and single premium annuities designed to help women plan for a financially secure future for themselves and their families. Through the sale of our financial products, we fund community projects held by our members to benefit charitable organizations and individuals in need in the communities where our members live. To learn more, visit WomansLife.org or call 810-985-5191.